Tutoring Experience

For over 11 years, I've worked with students from Canada, the UK, and the US, specialising in IB Maths and other curriculums such as A-Level and IGCSE. My approach focuses on building a strong mathematical foundation, which has enabled my students to excel academically and secure placements at top universities.

In addition to one-on-one tutoring, I've guided group sessions and mentored over a thousand students during my career. I am passionate about helping students overcome their challenges in maths and strive to make the subject engaging for all.
